

Summer 2017 - Happenings at Alberta Art & Drafting

July 7 – Book Reading and Conversation

The Creative Guild – Janice Gallant

7 to 9 pm

Janice is a teacher, writer and artist whose works have sold across North America. She has written about how we align ourselves so that we can undo blocks to the creative process so we can connect with the life we are meant to have. Janice will also share her artwork with us, and discuss her process. Pick up your copy of the book at the store, and join the conversation!

Class: Summer Camp for Kids	Instructor: Lisa Fitzler
Dates: July 10 – 14 (drop in)	Time: 10am – 3pm
Level: Ages 8 – 12	Cost: $40 per day + GST – includes supplies

Each day students will paint a different piece, while developing skills. In addition, there may be some tidbits around art journaling or other creations. The camp operates for a full week, or just one day. Please select a day when you register your young artist.

Class: Portrait Drawing	Instructor: Gavin Petersen
Date: July 22	Time: 10am – 4pm
Level: Ages 16+	Cost : $60 + GST (supply list)

This course will focus on creating the foundation for an accurate portrait drawing from photographs, using one to one measuring techniques – useful for life drawing. This workshop will be sure to give you the tools to simplify portraiture.

Class: Batik Card making	Instructor: Cheryl Dean
Dates: July 29	Time: 9am - 4pm
Level: Adult	Cost : $65 + GST($60 LAG card) (supply list)

Join Cheryl as she takes you through a wonderful, creative process using wax and dye to make your own unique, original cards.

Class: Clay for Kids	Instructor: Leah Spagrud
Dates: Aug. 1, 3, 8, 10, 15, 17	Time: 9am – 12pm
Level: Ages 10 – 14 (max.10 students)	Cost : $180 + GST (includes supplies)